TRIVIA:

- WALL-E stands for: Waste Allocation Load Lifter: Earth Class. EVE stands for: Extra-terrestrial Vegetation Evaluator.
- WALL-E characters are inspired by Charles Chaplin films. Charlie Chaplin always portrayed a poor, but good guy. Then he would meet a nice, smart girl. The same happens to WALL-E.
- Elissa Knight, who provides the voice of EVE is not an actress, but an employee of Pixar.
- The average number of storyboards used on a Pixar film is 75,000. For this movie, it was 125,000.
- Sound wizard Ben Burtt recorded many of the sounds for this film in a junkyard.

FIRE IN THE SKY

USA • 1993

Produced by: Todd Black, Joe Wizan

TRIVIA:

- The real Travis Walton and Dana Walton make cameo appearances in the scene where the townspeople discuss what to do about Travis' disappearance.
- There were actually a total of seven men in the logging crew. The writers whittled them down to six for the movie, not wishing to confuse the audience with too many characters. All seven men have passed lie detector tests, some of them twice.
- Director Robert Lieberman said author Anne Rice told him the movie was the scariest movie she had seen at the time.
- Travis Walton has always resented this movie, which he says misrepresents his experience, especially the abduction scenes.

WOLFMAN (USA)

In English • 4 min • European Premiere

Directed by: Kevin James Barry

In Nazi occupied California a mysterious masked vigilante begins an armed rebellion against the fascist overlords.

TRIVIA:

- John Carpenter's intent with the character of Michael Myers was that the audience should never be able to relate to him.
- The stabbing sound effect is actually a knife stabbing a watermelon.
- Of the female leads (all the girls are supposed to be in high school), only Jamie Lee Curtis was actually a teenager at the time of shooting.
- Half of the $300,000 budget was spent on the Panavision cameras so the film would have a 2.35:1 scope. Donald Pleasence was paid 20k for five days.
- Halloween was shot in 20 days in the spring of 1978.

THE EXORCIST

USA • 1973

Horror • DIRECTOR'S CUT in 35mm

* The award ceremony will take place before the movie at 18:30.

When a teenage girl is possessed by a mysterious entity, her mother seeks the help of two priests to save her daughter.

Directed By: William Friedkin

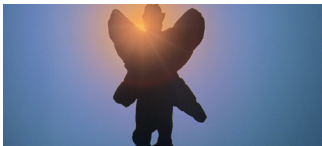

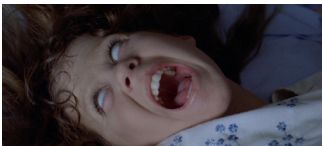

Starring: Ellen Burstyn, Max von Sydow, Lee J. Cobb, Kitty Winn, Jack MacGowran, Jason Miller, Linda Blair

Produced By: William Peter Blatty

TRIVIA:

- Due to death threats against Linda Blair from religious zealots who believed the film "glorified Satan", Warner Bros. had bodyguards protecting her for six months after the film's release.
- On the first day of filming the exorcism sequence, Linda Blair's delivery of her foul-mouthed dialogue so disturbed the gentlemanly Max von Sydow that he actually forgot his lines.
- Jack Nicholson was up for the part of Father Karras, before Jason Miller landed the role. Friedkin thought he was too unholy to ever play a priest.
- According to William Friedkin, the subliminal shots of the white faced demon are actually rejected makeup tests for Regan's possessed appearance.
